LIBERTY LOAN BOOKLET

Information About Campaigns Furnished by Chicago Trust Company.

A booklet containing much illuminating information about the various liberty loan campaigns has been issued by the bond department of the Chicago Trust company, and is being distributed among its friends and patrons. It is intended to give such information pertaining to liberty bonds as will be desired by the holders of these securities.

The booklet contains tables showing the amount of issue, amount subscribed, amount allotted and number of subscribers to each of the five loans; a synopsis of the president's "fourteen points"; five chapters of liberty loan information, each chapter dealing in detail with the features of the loan it describes; a chronology of the war's chief events, and other items touching on the war.

War-time prohibition has cut down the number of Chicago saloons by only 430. Before July 1 the number was 5,280. Deputy City Collector George Lohman made public police reports showing that 4,750 are still doing business, though their sales supposedly consist only of near beer. The report gives the largest number of near beer saloons in any ward as 426 in the Twenty-fourth ward. There are none in the Thirty-fifth ward, according to the report.

PUBLIC SERVICE BUNK

The Tooth Extracting and Smoke Consuming Department in the City Hall Makes People Laugh.

Why doesn't the alleged city department of Public Service get after the fraudulent weighing machines, with which the city is infested?

Can you guess why it doesn't? There are 102,641 of these machines scattered all over the city on city sidewalks.

It is safe to say that 100,000 of them are out of order most of the time.

They yield an immense revenue, as each patron is obliged to give up one cent for the privilege of finding out how much he does not weigh.

Another fraud on the public is the counterfeit vending cent-in-the-slot machine, which in the majority of cases, takes the cent but yields no gum.

Why is it that the City Department of Public Service permits these frauds to exist?

Judge Frank Johnston, Jr., is making a fine record on the Circuit Court bench.

Oscar Deis, American pianist, volunteered his services at Fort Sheridan and Great Lakes on Monday.

George L. Schein, the well known lawyer, who numbers his friends by the thousand, would make a fine judge. Mr. Schein has no ambition in this direction, it is said, but his ability, fairness and legal experience well fit him for judicial honors.

Mayor Thompson should be given a chance to fire a lot of deadwood among the city hall clerks. Some of them thinking themselves safe under the civil service law, are impudent, insubordinate and useless.

C. A. Bickett, the well known and highly respected president of the Bickett Coal and Coke Company, although still a young man, has led a very active life and has been a potent figure in the business world for many years. Whether as president of the Chicago Bearing Metal Company, the Bickett Coal and Coke Company, or as a director of the Fort Dearborn National Bank, he has won the high regard of the business public.

Peter Reinberg has saved millions for the people as president of the county board.

Alderman Walter P. Steffen is frequently mentioned for state treasurer.

John B. Knaut of 72 West Washington street is one of the leaders in the real estate world.

Paul H. Wiedel, the able and courteous chief clerk of the board of assessors, is one of the most capable and highly respected public officials in Cook county. He is a live wire in the cause of good public service.

Among American music educators Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Deis are in the very front rank. On principles of psychology and modern pedagogy they conduct the work of their school where piano playing as an art is taught exclusively.

Julius F. Smietanka is making a splendid record as collector of internal revenue.

Sheriff Charles W. Peters is making a good record.

Michael Corcoran, the popular bill poster, with headquarters at 177 West Washington street is one of the best men in Chicago. His work for the government during the war kept him pretty busy, but the business and theatrical world now claims all of his attention.

William C. Niehoff would make a good County Commissioner. No man is better posted on public affairs.

Dixon C. Williams should be elected to the constitutional convention in the sixth district.

Richard M. Hennessy, the well known building contractor, has an honored record for ability and efficiency.
